A Sunday school teacher asked his class one day what a Saint was. A little boy at the back of the class raised his hand and when called upon said, "They are the people that God's light shines through". The teacher thought this boy has got things figured out. The teacher inquired further and the little boy said, "My Mom says that the pretty glass windows in our church are pictures of Saints". The teacher was once again reminded about the wisdom of kids. I had a very patient Sunday school teacher named Wateman Heine who taught a grade school group of boys. I am sure looking back that I didn't always listen to Wateman. Wateman was an old man whose own kids had grown up and moved away. Wateman took special care to make sure that we knew about Jesus. We met every Sunday morning in the basement of an old church and Wateman would patiently teach us about God's grace, love and forgiveness. I must have listened because at a very young age I accepted Jesus as my Lord and Savior. Wateman gave me a Bible to commemorate the occasion. I still have that Bible and I ran across it the other day. I took time to look through it and I thought about the man that took time out of his Sunday mornings to teach a bunch of ornery boys what we needed to know about how to reach eternity. We wanted what he had. He had an intense love of Jesus that we could see inside of him. A light that shown through him like it does through the stained glass windows of a church. Do what you can to be a Saint, invite someone to go on the Walk to Emmaus. Someone you know wants what you have. That light of Jesus that shines through you. Agape:

Thanks from the Agape Room,

WOW! What an abundance of awesome agape we had for walks # 103 and 104. We were able to have bed agape on Friday and Saturday nights, table agape on Saturday and enough on Sunday that there was hardly room for their plates. Wonderful, wonderful!!! Thank you all so much. Remember 65 pieces for the Walks in Garden City in March of 2012.

Snacks

Walks 103 – 104 went wonderfully for the snack crew. On Friday the faces of you pilgrims were a little grim but soon there were wider smiles and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit was becoming more evident. Thank you for all the snacks that were provided, GOD IS GOOD !!!!!

Walk Activities

The past 3 years have flown by and my time on the board is over. I want to thank all of you that helped with walk activities, hanging of crosses, entertainment, candlelight and closings. Candlelight is always a special time for ALL of us and the last two walks were certainly no exception.

DECOLORES

David Cloud, Walk 45, Table of James

I want to say a big thank you to the pilgrims and sponsors for the last few walks. The registration went well and I am glad so many ended up going on the walks. The next sets of walks are in Garden City, March 8-11 for the men and March 15-18 for the women. Now is the time to start thinking of folk that could be pilgrims for these walks.

De Colores Donna Schrag, registrar

A special Thank You to Dr. Mike Gardiner for the use of his private office for the prayer room on walks 103 & 104
