Sponsor's Responsibilities and Obligations

When you have a prospective pilgrim in mind, follow these suggested steps, keeping in mind that the weekend is for those who are actively participating in a local congregation.

SPONSORING

- v PRAY: Prayer should be focused on how this person can become a more vitally alive Christian in helping bring God's kingdom into his/her natural environment, rather than how to get this person to attend the weekend.
- v EQUAL COMMITMENT RULE: Says, "Husbands and wives should make an equal commitment to attendance in the Walk." Reasons why this is important: (1) Emmaus can indirectly strengthen the spiritual bond in a marriage. (2) It guards against the Emmaus experience becoming a separating influence in a marriage. Applications without a detailed, written explanation will not be considered.
- v APPOINTMENT: Make an appointment to make the invitation. If married, be sure to include the spouse. Make it a personal invitation to enrich their lives and thus become a more effective disciple.
- v THE INVITATION: After sharing your own experience, make sure the person knows your invitation is to a more vitally alive relationship with Jesus Christ, not just to attend a weekend. You should carefully explain each of the following: a) Reunion Groups, b) Monthly Gatherings, c) Renewed interest in serving one's own church, d) Scholarship Program.
- v APPLICATION: Have pilgrim's registration form(s) filled out in your presence, answering any questions they may have. If married, each spouse must fill out a separate form. Make arrangements for the $25 non-refundable deposit, (the balance due must be made at Send Off). Later fill out the sponsor's form and mail both with the deposit to Bread of Life Emmaus as quickly as possible. If all blanks are not filled on both forms, they will be returned as incomplete.
- v CONTINUING PREPARATION: Continue to pray for and stay close to your candidate(s) to answer any questions that may arise. If the person's pastor has not attended, you will want to explain the Walk and enlist prayers and support. Help the pastor visualize how this spiritually renewed person can be used in the ministry of the church.

THE WEEKEND

- v Send Off: It is very important that you personally bring the pilgrim to Send Off.
- v Candlelight: This is often the highlight of the weekend so plan to be there to support your pilgrim, and make sure spouses attend if they have been on their Walk.
- v Closing: Be there ready to hug and welcome your pilgrim to the community. Plan to return them to their home at the end of the weekend.

FOURTH DAY

- v Contact your pilgrims on Monday, helping him/her digest the experience. Continue to pray for them and their family.
- v Reunion Group: Make sure your pilgrim gets into a reunion group. Invite them to come to yours, or advise them of others you are aware of. This is perhaps the most important aspect of remaining active in Emmaus. It is part of your responsibility to help the pilgrim find a suitable group.
- v Gatherings: Offer to bring your pilgrim(s) to the next few monthly gathering following their Walk. Inform them of satellite community gatherings as well as the Bread of Life community meetings.
- v Church: Make sure the pilgrim goes back to their church with an enthusiastic, positive, supportive attitude.
- v Emmaus Community: Help the person understand how the community functions and explain ways they can serve the community.
- v Sponsoring: Help them to remember a community is committed to recruiting strong church leaders for the purpose of strengthening the local church, and the Walk is not a hospital where every human ill can be cured. Help them discern the people who would respond to a weekend of love and thus become more vitally alive in their church, home, vocation, and community. Help them with all steps of sponsoring others the first time through.

*It is your responsibility as a sponsor to commit to following these steps!
If you cannot personally fulfill some of the steps, it is your responsibility to have someone else fill in.*
